Jobless Teacher Solves Problem

Although she has a teacher's certificate from a southern university, Miss Alice Conifee was unable to find a teaching position. Determined to stay off relief rolls, she has found a new occupation. She is pictured here shining shoes on a Philadelphia, Pa., street corner. Miss Conifee also worked as waitress and librarian.

First Nighter—Spinning Champ—'Desperado'

Three gentlemen, whose combined ages totaled 276, broke into the limelight recently—for three different reasons. "Shoshone Johnny," left, 100-year-old Indian, dropped into Hollywood from Death Valley to view a motion picture preview. Center: Jean Couterie, 106, of Quebec, is Canada's foremost exponent of the old fashioned spinning wheel. He wants Hitler to follow his calm example and end war. Right: Sentenced to serve 60 days in a Newark, N. J., jail for vagrancy was Charles Dean, 70, who was found to be one of the gang which participated in the historic Great Northern train robbery in Stillwater, Minn., in 1898.

Nazi Railway Gun Barks at Maginot Line

A Nazi big gun pictured in the instant of sending its load of death toward the French Maginot line. German militarists place a great deal of faith in the ability of these huge railway guns to help crack France's line of defense. When army communiques report "slight military activity on both sides," they usually mean that the big guns have been barking, spreading both death and destruction.

An Announcement

After 26 years of service to the people of this community, I want to express my appreciation for the loyal support which my friends have given me through the years and ask that they come to my store during the next 30 days and let me thank them personally.

I want you to meet my successor, Mr. J. C. Hudgins who is a funeral director and embalmer of long experience and will be able to give my friends better service than it has been possible for me to do.

Emma Smith
